

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No. 3499 of 2016
Date of Decision : 01.02.2019

Rajwinder Kaur

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Mehardeep Singh, Additional Advocate General, Punjab.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J.(Oral)

Learned counsel for the parties are agreed that the claim made in the present writ petition has already been granted by the respondents themselves to the petitioner and, therefore, no further orders are necessary to be passed by this Court.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner states that in case any calculation as done by the respondents is found to be incorrect/unsatisfactory, the petitioner be given liberty to approach the respondents in this regard.

The petitioner does not need the permission of this Court to bring out any mistake to the notice of the respondents. She will be free to do so in case she find any wrong calculation done by the respondents while calculating/releasing the benefits.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of as being rendered infructuous.
