Pursuant to order dated 11.03.2019, affidavit has been filed by learned State counsel. Perusal of the same reflects that though the case of petitioner for granting extension in service is conceded, but the said relief cannot be granted to him, at this stage as by efflux of time, the petitioner has already attained the age of 60.

In the premise, the only controversy that requires adjudication is whether the petitioner is entitled to be granted back wages for the period he was kept out of job for no fault of his, even though he was ever willing to serve, had he been granted extension.
