CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH.

for the petitioner

...

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

The petitioner having already been declared a proclaimed offender due to his non-appearance before the trial Court, and the contention of learned counsel for the petitioner being to the effect that the petitioner has paid a fine of Rs.2,000/- in the Environment Court, without producing the order pursuant to which any such fine was paid (with only the receipt thereof produced in Court today), I see no reason to entertain this petition, which is consequently dismissed.

However, if the trial Court finds that the petitioner is complying with the orders passed by it in the trial pending qua breach of environment/forest laws, it would naturally take that fact into consideration at the time when the petitioner surrenders before that Court in the present case, and files an application seeking bail under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C.
