CR No.4907 of 2019

Date of Decision: 20.08.2019

Dalbir Singh

.....Petitioner

Versus

Seema Rani

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIRMALJIT KAUR

Present: Mr. S.S. Sarwara, Advocate for the petitioner.

NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

The present revision petition has been filed against the order dated 04.07.2019 passed by the Civil Judge (Junior Division), Rajpura (for short, the trial Court), vide which, the application of the petitioner to deposit the sale consideration within time as ordered by the trial Court, was dismissed.

It is contended that the substantial amount of ₹2,30,000/- has already been paid and only an amount of ₹20,000/- was required to be paid as damages.

This Court may have issued notice but for the fact that the suit was decided ex-parte and even the application of the petitioner was also dismissed in limine and taking into account that the substantial amount of ₹2,30,000/- was already paid and the balance amount, which was required to be deposited only ₹20,000/-, it would be in the interest of justice to allow the present revision petition.

Accordingly the present revision petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to deposit the balance sale consideration amount within one week from today i.e. on or before 27.08.2019 alongwith 6% interest from the date, he was to deposit the amount till the date of actual deposit. In case the same is not deposited within the said period, no further application for extension of time shall be entertained.
