Petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short ('Cr.P.C.)) invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.58 dated 18.07.2019, registered under Sections 406, 420 IPC, at Police Station Talwara, District Hoshiarpur, and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion was issued on 26.08.2019 and counsel for the parties were requested to file affidavits before the next date of hearing regarding genuineness, voluntarily of the compromise and that it has been arrived at between the parties without any coercion or undue influence.

In compliance of the order dated 26.08.2019, both the parties have filed their respective affidavits which are taken on record. Both the parties are present in the Court who have been identified by the respective counsel. Learned counsels appearing on behalf of both the parties admit that parties have settled their disputes.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of the Court settlement by way of compromise (Annexure P-2). The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

For the aforesaid view, this Court finds support from Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, upheld by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned and to secure the ends of justice, FIR No.58 dated 18.07.2019, registered under Sections 406, 420 IPC, at Police Station Talwara, District Hoshiarpur, and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed, however, qua the petitioner only.

Resultantly, with the above-said observations made, the instant petition stands allowed.
