CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJAN GUPTA
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANJARI NEHRU KAUL

Present : Mr. Manu Rattan, Advocate for Mr. N.K.Manchanda, Advocate for the appellant.

None for the respondent.

Rajan Gupta, J.(Oral)

Marriage between the parties was solemnized on 06.03.1995 as per Sikh rites and ceremonies at village Pandori Jattan Tehsil Zira. It appears that some differences developed between the parties. The respondent-husband filed a petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short 'the Act') for dissolution of their marriage in the court at Ferozepur. Trial court allowed the petition and a decree of divorce was passed against which the appellant-wife preferred an appeal before this Court.

During the pendency of appeal, matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre for settlement but the same proved futile. However, when the appeal came up for final hearing, Court has been informed that the parties have reconciled the matter.

Both are present in Court and filed their respective affidavits.

Para 2 of the affidavit filed by the respondent-husband reads as under:

“That the during the pendency of above mentioned appeal, the matter has been amicably settled between the parties with the intervention of the son of the parties and respectable of person of village and now both the parties are living together at village Pandori Jattan, Tehsil Zira, District Ferozepur. Further, the appellant as well as respondent/deponent have no objection, if the present appeal be allowed and the judgment and decree dated 01.10.2011 passed by learned Addl. District Judge, Ferozepur be set aside. Thus, the present appeal may kindly be allowed and above judgment and decree dated 01.10.2011 passed by ld. Addl. District Judge, Ferozepur may kindly be set aside.”

Affidavit filed by the appellant-wife is in the similar terms.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the appellant submits that the decree passed by the court below whereby marriage between the parties was dissolved, may be set aside.

Learned counsel for the respondent does not oppose the said request.

In view of the above, the present appeal is allowed and the decree of divorce passed by the court below is set aside.
