RAJBIR SEHRAWAT, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of complaint No.21496 dated 13.12.2018 (Annexure P-1) titled as Rajni Sethi Vs. M/s. Wellness Hair Beauty and Spa and others pending before the court of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Chandigarh.

At the very outset, counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners do not wish to press the prayer of quashing of the complaint and the summoning order at this stage. However, to compound the offence, the petitioners have already paid the amount as directed by the trial court and has moved a formal application before the trial court for compounding of the offence. However, the trial court has not decided the same so far. Therefore, the direction be issued to the trial court to take final decision on the said application.

Since the petitioners have already paid the amount of the cheque, along with the interest, as assessed by the trial court, therefore, it would not be unjustified if the trial court is directed to take the final decision on the application moved by the petitioners for compounding their offence.

Accordingly, the present petition is disposed of with direction to the trial court to take final decision on the application moved by the petitioners for compounding offence, on or before the next date of hearing fixed before the trial court.
