CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. Brijesh Nandan, Advocate for the petitioners.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of above said seven contempt petitions.

These contempt petitions have been filed pleading wilful disobedience of order of this Court whereby the writ petitions were allowed in terms of CWP No. 20139 of 2015 titled as Chiman Singh Versus Punjab State Power Corporation and others decided on 29.02.2016.

On asking of the Court, Mr. G.S. Ghuman, Advocate, who is also Nodal Officer of the Corporation, accepts notice on behalf of the Corporation.

The respondents preferred LPAs and thereafter SLP, which were dismissed

Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions from

Sh. Sudeep Sokhal, Senior Executive Engineer, PSPCL, Fazilka, who is present in Court with regard to the other cases, states that office order would be passed within four weeks from today and needful would be done within a period of six weeks, thereafter.

Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) submits that in view of the statement made in Court today, no cause of action survives for pursuing the present contempt petitions.

In view of the above, all the petitions are disposed of.

The petitioners would be at liberty to revive the contempt petition, in case, the statement made by learned counsel for the respondents today in Court is not adhered to.

It is further clarified that in case, the petitioners are forced to revive the contempt petition, exemplary costs may be imposed which shall be recovered personally from the defaulting official.
