Vs.

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ

Present: Mr. Ashok Kumar Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sukhdeep Parmar, DAG, Haryana assisted by ASI Charan Singh.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

Petitioner-Shekhar has prayed for grant of regular bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C in case FIR No.70 dated 21.11.2018 registered under Section 379-A read with Section 34 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station GRP Jind, District Jind. Petitioner is in custody since his arrest i.e. December, 2018.

The FIR was registered on the statement of complainant, namely, Rahul Jha wherein it was alleged that on 21.11.2018, he along with his family was travelling from Bhatinda to Muzaffarpur in train. When train stopped at Railway Station Narwana, then three boys snatched the bag from his sister, which contained Rs.2,000/- and gold items.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case as he is not named in the FIR. Learned counsel states that investigation of the case is complete, therefore, further custody of the petitioner may not be required.

On the other hand, learned State counsel assisted by ASI Charan Singh opposed the bail application on the ground that there are three more cases against the petitioner and in one of case, he was declared proclaimed offender and does not deserve the concession of bail. Learned State counsel apprised that the victim has been examined in the present case.

Considering the above background and the fact investigation of the case is complete and trial of the case is likely to consume considerable time, this Court does not find any valid reason to detain the petitioner any further in custody. Therefore, without meaning any expression of opinion on the merits of the case, it is ordered that the petitioner be released on regular bail subject to his furnishing requisite bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court, Jind.

The petition is allowed.
