ARUN KUMAR TYAGI, J (ORAL)

The petitioner has filed the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus, by appointment of a warrant officer or directions to respondents No.1 and 2, to secure the release of detenue-Asha wife of petitioner, who is in illegal custody/forceful detention of respondents No.4 and 5.

Notice of motion in this case was issued on 29.08.2019.

Learned State counsel has pointed out that detenue-Asha is now living with the petitioner which fact is also acknowledged by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the detenue was illegally detained and tortured while learned counsel for respondent No.5 has submitted that the detinue had taken loan from respondent No.4 which they have not paid.

Since, detinue-Asha is now living with the petitioner and is not in illegal confinement of anyone, no further action is required to be taken on the present habeas corpus petition, which is disposed of accordingly.

However, the parties shall be at liberty to seek redressal of their grievances, if any, by filing appropriate proceedings before appropriate Court/Forum, in accordance with law.
