ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J (ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No.219, dated 10.07.2019, under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code ('IPC' - for short), registered at Police Station Parao, District Ambala.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the allegations in the FIR are primarily against the husband of the petitioner and only a sum of ₹99,500/- has been deposited in the account of the petitioner, although it is alleged that a sum of ₹13,500/- was also paid to the petitioner in cash. The petitioner is a 28 years old lady with a minor child, who is also in prison with her. She is in custody for over a month. He also contends that without prejudice to her rights and contentions, the petitioner is ready to deposit a sum of ₹99,500/- before the trial Court.

Learned State counsel upon instructions from HC Mahabir Singh states that the challan has been filed but charges are yet to be framed.

Heard.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner especially when the petitioner is 28 years old lady with a minor child and conclusion of the trial is likely to take some time, I deem it a fit case to grant the concession of regular bail to the petitioner.

Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on her furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.

The petitioner shall deposit a sum of ₹99,500/- before the trial Court and the same shall be released to the complainant after furnishing adequate security and the entitlement of this amount shall be decided by the trial Court at the time of conclusion of the trial.
