CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mohd. Yousaf, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Rishabh Gupta, Advocate for the respondents.

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J.

This writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for the issuance of an appropriate writ, in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to release the payment of ₹6,15,000/- approximately along with interest @24% p.a. from its due date to the petitioner immediately for the work done by the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that the payment in question could not be released immediately for want of complete details as the petitioner has not furnished the complete details along with the measurement sheets. He further assures that as and when the complete details along with the measurement sheets are filed, the case of the petitioner shall be processed and the payment will be made without any further delay as per law.

In view of the above statement made by counsel for the respondents, the present petition is disposed of with direction to the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner who would furnish the complete details alongwith measurement sheets within a period of 4 weeks from today. In case, the documents are found in order, the necessary payment be released without further delay. However, if in case the petitioner is able demonstrate that it already had filed the entire documents with complete details required on its part, interest @6.5% p.a. from the due date be also allowed to the petitioner.
