The claim of the petitioner in the present writ petition is that the State of Punjab revised the pay of its employees in the year 2009 w.e.f. 01.01.2006, and at that time the petitioner was working with the respondent- Punjab Tourism Development Corporation Limited, hence he was also entitled for the grant of the benefit of the said revision w.e.f. 01.01.2006 as the Punjab Civil Services Rules have been duly adopted by the Punjab Tourism Development Corporation Limited. Learned Senior counsel argues that the respondents were under obligation to revise the pay of the petitioner by granting him the benefit of revised pay scale as well as the consequential benefits of the revision of the pensionary benefits and releasing the arrear to the petitioner.

Learned Senior counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner prays that a direction be issued to the respondent- Punjab Tourism Development Corporation Limited, to grant the benefit of the said revision to the petitioner forthwith, with consequential benefits.

consideration with respondents and the petitioner will be satisfied, at this stage, in case a time bound direction is issued to the respondents to decide the said demand notice.
