Crl. Misc. No.M-39253 of 2019

Though, on 04.10.2019, provisions of the Punjab Minor Minerals Rules, 2013, had been referred to by the learned counsel for the petitioner and by this Court, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he does not want to press this petition.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

Crl. Misc. No.M-38765 of 2019

As regards this petition, by which the petitioner seeks setting aside of the the order declaring him to be a proclaimed offender, with learned counsel for the petitioner having submitted that he is not pressing the petition challenging the summoning order on the complaint made by respondent no.2 herein, in my opinion, the order can be set aside simply so as to allow the petitioner to appear before the trial court and defend the petition so, that the trial is not hampered any longer, but with him to pay costs to the complainant and to the State, for having delayed the matter.

Consequently, this petition is allowed, with the impugned order declaring the petitioner to be a proclaimed offender set aside, upon the petitioner surrendering before the trial court, with that court to admit him to bail to its satisfaction, subject further to the petitioner paying costs of Rs.10,000/- to the complainant, as also costs of Rs.10,000/- to be deposited with the State Legal Services Authority, Punjab.

Crl. Misc. No.M-39195 of 2019

By this petition, the petitioner seeks the concession of anticipatory bail. With learned counsel for the petitioner having withdrawn the petition challenging the summoning order and him having been ordered to be admitted to bail upon him surrendering before the trial court, subject to the condition laid down herein above, this petition has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.
