AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J (ORAL)

Challenge in this Letters Patent Appeal filed under Clause X of the Letters Patent is to order dated 10.12.2015 passed by learned Single Bench in CWP No.18203 of 2014, dismissing the writ petition.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.2-workman submitted that the dispute with the appellant-management had been settled and all the dues have been paid to the workman except release on account of provident fund. It was stated that matter relating to payment of provident fund is fixed before the Labour Court today, i.e. 07.03.2019. However, learned counsel for the appellant pleads no instructions from the appellant.

3. In view of the above, the letters patent appeal is disposed of as infructuous. However, liberty is granted to the appellant to file an application for revival of the appeal, in case something survives therein.
