CWP-26531-2019

Date of Decision:23.10.2019

Mahabir Singh

....petitioner

Versus

The State of Haryana and another

.....respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present: Mr.Amit Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (ORAL):

Through this petition, the petitioner has sought for a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to grant the benefit of parole to the petitioner for a period of one month to enable him to construct his house.

Mr.Saurabh Mohunta, DAG Haryana present in the Court has filed reply today in Court and the same is taken on record.

As per the reply filed by the State, the petitioner jumped the parole for almost 12 years. The petitioner was granted parole for two weeks in the year 2005 but he jumped parole never to return till he was arrested and returned to District Jail, Bhiwani. The petitioner belongs to Rajasthan and was convicted for offence punishable under Section 20 of the NDPS Act. He has made a story in para No.4 of the petition that he was arrested in a false case by the Rajasthan police in the year 2009 and that was an explanation for his not surrendering to the jail authorities. In this case, he cannot forget that from the year 2005 to 2009 his whereabouts were not known and criminal proceedings had been initiated against him for jumping the parole. The Court has no sympathy for such a person in his quest for parole for repair of his house in Rajasthan.

No ground for parole is made out.

Dismissed.
