Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ

Present:- Mr. Iqbal Singh Saggu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sukhdeep Parmar, DAG, Haryana.

MANOJ BAJAJ J.(Oral)

Petitioner Luvkush has filed the present petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.244 dated 14.7.2019, under Sections 148, 149, 323, 341, 325, 379-B and 212 IPC, registered at Police Station Saran, District Faridabad.

The FIR was registered on the statement of complainant Avtar Singh with the allegations that on 12.7.2019 at about 7.30 PM, he had gone to the market on his motor-cycle for purchasing of clothes. When he came from the office of his friend Vinod after meeting him, then on the way petitioner alongwith co-accused Vicky and 5-6 other persons stopped him and gave beatings with iron rods. Co-accused Vicky snatched Rs.15,000/- from him. On the basis of these allegations, present FIR was registered.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that though the petitioner is named in the FIR, but the injuries were caused by other accused persons.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, who is assisted by ASI Naresh Kumar has opposed the prayer on the ground that the victim suffered five fractures and the petitioner was one of the members of the unlawful assembly and, therefore, he does not deserve the concession of bail.

Considering the above, this Court does not find any valid reason to extend the extra-ordinary concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Resultantly, the petition is dismissed.
