Versus

Rahuljeet Singh Sidhu

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIRMALJIT KAUR

Present: Mr. Rakesh Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Harsh Kinra, Advocate, for the respondent.

NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

In pursuance to the order dated 24.9.2019, both the parties are present alongwith the minor children. The son is almost 14 years of age and daughter is almost 9 ½ years of age. The Court interacted with the children in the chamber and they appeared matured and sensible. They were clear that they did not wish to meet their mother. Thereafter, the mother was allowed to meet the children in the chamber in the presence of their respective counsels. The children repeated what was told to this Court that they did not wish to meet the petitioner. However, the parties as well as the respective counsels agreed that the order dated 7.8.2019 can be modified only to the extent of the venue/place where the children can meet their mother. It is agreed that the mother will meet her children at a restaurant, namely, Spice Den, which is close to the school premises of the children from 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm for two hours on every last Saturday of the month. It is clarified that in case, the mother cannot come present on the last Saturday of the month, she will convey the same to the respondent either by way of whatsapp message or through the counsel representing the respondent before the trial Court. It is further clarified that in case the mother is not able to meet on the last Saturday of a particular month, she will miss the opportunity for the said month and will not demand the meeting of the said month on a subsequent date.

The present revision petition is disposed of in the above terms. However, the observations made above shall have no bearing on the merits of the case pending before the trial Court.
