CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIRMALJIT KAUR

Mr. Vansh Malhotra, Advocate for the respondent.NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

On 24.09.2019, notice of motion was issued to the respondent on the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner that the decretal amount alongwith interest shall be paid in five equal installments within a span of three months and he will further deposit Rs.2.00 Lakhs by way of demand draft before the concerned Executing Court on 26.09.2019. The impugned order was stayed, subject to the deposit of Rs.2.00 Lakhs by way of demand draft in the name of the respondent/decreed holder.

Learned counsel for the respondent has pointed out that the matter was adjourned thrice by the Executing Court but no amount has been deposited by the petitioner till date.

The matter was ordered to be listed on 17.10.2019, on which date, the petitioner was required to bring the demand draft. However, the matter was adjourned on 17.10.2019 to 18.11.2019. Today, neither any one is present on behalf of the petitioner nor the amount of Rs.2.00 Lakhs by way of demand draft, has been deposited before the Executing Court and nor any amount is presented to this Court, as ordered.

In view of the above, the present revision petition is dismissed.
Executing Court shall now proceed further, in accordance with law.

Before the order could be signed, learned counsel for the petitioner appeared and said that the petitioner has brought a cheque of some amount. However, the above order cannot be changed in the absence of the other counsel.

Accordingly, in case the petitioner intends to pay the amount, he move an application for recalling the above order, subject to it being accompanied by a demand draft of the amount as mentioned in the last order, within three weeks from today to show his bonafide.
