Two appeals were preferred against the order of the learned Tribunal; one by the Insurance Company and the other by the claimants.

The Insurance Company has settled the appeal preferred by the claimants and has already paid him the entire amount as awarded by the learned tribunal and has agreed to pay another sum of Rs.70,000/- over & above the amount already awarded by the MACT.

Learned counsel appearing for the Insurance Company states that in view of the settlement arrived at in the connected appeal, this appeal be dismissed as not pressed and the amount deposited by the Insurance Company in the sum of Rs.25,000/- be refunded to the Insurance Company, the award having already been satisfied.

In view of the stand of the learned counsel for the Insurance Company, the appeal is dismissed as withdrawn and the office is directed to refund the statutory amount deposited by the Insurance Company for preferring this appeal.
