Mr. Manu Loona, Advocate
for the respondent.

Rajan Gupta, J.

Present appeal is directed against the judgment and decree dated 09.03.2017 whereby the petition preferred by the husband seeking divorce from the appellant Seema Rani was allowed by Court below. Aggrieved, the appellant-wife filed an appeal before this Court.

The Court was apprised during the course of hearing that Rs.7 lakhs was granted as permanent alimony by the Court below to the appellant-wife while disposing of the appeal.

Today, learned counsel for the respondent-husband has submitted that he shall deposit another amount of Rs.5 lakhs in the shape of FDR in the name of daughter within six weeks from today. He further submits that amount of Rs.20,000/- towards litigation expenses shall also be remitted in the account of the appellant.

Learned counsel for the appellant is satisfied with this settlement and submits that she may be allowed to withdraw the present appeal.

Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn. However, liberty is granted to the appellant to seek revival in case the respondent does not comply with the undertaking given in the Court within the stipulated period.
