Rajan Gupta, J.(Oral)

Marriage between the parties was solemnized on 07.03.2011 as per Hindu rites and ceremonies. Thereafter, they lived as husband and wife. Differences developed between them as a result of which, the appellant-wife preferred a divorce petition before the Court below. Having remained unsuccessful, she preferred instant appeal. During the pendency of the appeal, matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court. A report therefrom has been received, according to which, the parties have settled their dispute. They have already filed a petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short 'the Act') before the competent court where their statements at first motion have been recorded. Terms and conditions of the compromise are outlined in the settlement, which is reduced into writing and recorded.

In view of the above, the present appeal stands dismissed as having rendered infructuous.
