CWP-27780-2019

Date of Decision: September 26, 2019

Prem Singh

.. Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Dinesh Mahajan, Advocate, for the petitioner.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J.(ORAL)

In the present writ petition, the grievance which is being raised by the petitioner is that the daily wage service, which the petitioner had rendered prior to the regularization of his service, has not been counted as a qualifying service for the grant of pensionary benefits.

Counsel for the petitioner argues that the petitioner had rendered daily wage service from 08.10.1987 till 22.04.1991 when his services were regularized and ultimately, he retired on attaining the age of superannuation on 31.08.2011.

Counsel for the petitioner has not been able to satisfy this Court as to why the petitioner has approached this Court after a period of 8 years of his retirement. No explanation has come forward for the said delay.

Faced with this situation, counsel for the petitioner states that for the relief which has been sought in the present writ petition, petitioner has served the respondents with a legal notice dated 29.08.2019 (Annexure P-2), which is still pending consideration with the respondents and the petitioner will be satisfied, at this stage, in case a time bound direction is issued to the respondents to decide the said legal notice by passing an appropriate speaking order.

In view of the request made, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case or the claim being made by the petitioner, the respondents are directed to decide the legal notice dated 29.08.2019 (Annexure P-2) by passing a speaking order within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order. In case after the decision, it is found that the petitioner is entitled for any monetary benefit, the same shall also be released to him within a period of next three months. Further, as the petitioner has approached this Court after a delay of 8 years, he will not be entitled for interest on the abovesaid benefits.

Present writ petition stands disposed of.
