CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

CRM-M no.41891 of 2019
CRM-M-37248 of 2019

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the mother of both the petitioners is undergoing some medical problems and factually the wife of the deceased, i.e. the complainant in the FIR, and the son of the complainant, have both been declared to be hostile, they not having supported the case of the prosecution in any manner by way of their testimonies.

Learned State counsel though obviously could not deny the fact that the aforesaid testimonies are as they are, however has submitted that only 5 prosecution witnesses remain to be examined.

Upon a query having been put as to who those witnesses are, and the matter having been passed over for that purpose, he now submits on instructions from the police official who is present in court to assist him, that all the remaining witnesses are formal witnesses.

That being so, with the defence evidence obviously still to be led by the petitioners and all the material witnesses having been examined, with them having turned hostile, without making any comment on the actual merits of the case, for or against the petitioners in both the petitions, the petitions are allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be admitted to bail upon their furnishing adequate bail and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial court.

A copy of this order be placed on the file of the other connected matter too.
