TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA J.(Oral)

Petitioners seek a writ of mandamus for directing the official respondents to take necessary steps for protection of their life and liberty by voicing an apprehension and threat to the same at the hands of private respondents No.4 to 9.

Pleadings on record would bring forth that petitioner No.2 is already married to respondent No.9 and out of wedlock two female children have been born and who are minors.

Petitioner No.2 is stated to be in a live-in relationship with petitioner No.1 and who is none other than the real sister of wife of petitioner No.2.

On a specific query having been put, counsel apprises the Court that respondent No.9 is now residing in her parental home and is even looking after her two minor children. The divorce petition is stated to have been instituted by petitioner No.2 but the same is still pending adjudication.

This Court under no circumstances can approve the relationship/liaison between the petitioners.

That apart the averments made in the petition are wholly insufficient for this Court to infer any imminent danger to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

No intervention in the matter is called for.

Petition dismissed.
