Office report indicates that necessary application to implead legal representative(s) of respondent No.1 has not been moved to date, despite repeated opportunities.

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that though he has repeatedly written to the appellants even followed by reminders, but neither appellants nor anyone on their behalf has contacted the office of the counsel. Therefore, in the given situation, he expresses his inability to pursue the matter.

That being so, the Court is choice-less but to dismiss the appeal for non-prosecution.
