ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

By this common order, three petitions bearing CRM-M-42291-2019, CRM-M-42318-2019 and CRM-M-42756-2019 shall stand disposed of.

On 03.10.2019, following order was passed:-

“Learned counsel counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner already having been arrested one day prior to the order passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, reversing that of the trial Court, naturally he could not appear before the trial Court, thereafter.

Notice of motion be issued to the respondents (in both petitions), returnable on 17.10.2019.

In the meanwhile, keeping in view the entire circumstance, which naturally the trial Court would verify from the record before it, that Court would pass appropriate orders as regards admitting the petitioner to bail in both the complaints instituted against him under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, as also in the FIR registered under the provisions of Section 174-A of the IPC.

The trial Court would consequently decide the application (stated to be pending before it for tomorrow) by tomorrow itself but if for any valid reason, the same cannot be decided, such valid reason not being nonproduction of the petitioner by the State, such reason would be stated in the status report to be filed by the next date of hearing.

Since the date of hearing before the trial Court is stated to be tomorrow, a copy of this order be given to learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Bench Secretary of this Court.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of the other connected case.”

Learned counsel for the respondent(s) has submitted that pursuant to the aforesaid order, fresh bail bonds of the petitioner has been accepted and the petitioner has been released.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, all the abovesaid petitions are rendered infructuous and disposed of as such.
