There is no representation which has been placed on record claiming the said benefit and no mandamus can be issued without there being a claim raised by the concerned employee.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner states that he be allowed to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to approach the respondents for making representation/claim for the release of the benefits of GPF and gratuity, which are not being given to the petitioner without any valid justification.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.

In case, the petitioner makes any representation for the release of the benefits, the same be decided expeditiously.
