On October 03, 2019, the following order had been passed:-

“The petitioner having been summoned upon an application having been filed under Section 319 of the Cr.P.C., and obviously therefore at this stage (unless further investigation is ordered by the trial Court), their custodial interrogation is not required, without making any comment on the actual merits of the case for or against the petitioners, let notice of motion be issued to the respondent, returnable on 13.11.2019.

In the meanwhile, upon the petitioners surrendering before the trial Court, they would be admitted to bail to the satisfaction of that Court, till the next date of hearing before this Court.”

Today, learned counsel for the petitioners has produced in court an order of the trial court dated 14.10.2019, admitting the petitioners to bail to the satisfaction of that court.

Learned counsel for the State (on instructions from ASI Raj Kumar), and counsel for the complainant, both do not deny that the petitioners have been admitted to bail by the trial court.

Consequently, in view of what has been recorded in the order of this court dated October 03, 2019, the present petition is allowed, with the said order made absolute on the same terms and conditions.
