CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present: Ms. Sarla Chaudhary, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

While the petitioner has approached this Court for parole to attend the marriage of his daughter which is fixed for 23.11.2019, it has come on affidavit filed in Court today by Law Officer sworn by Deputy Superintendent, District Jail, Rohtak that the Commissioner, Rohtak Division, Rohtak has granted agricultural parole for 25 days to the petitioner from 06.11.2019 to 30.11.2019 vide order dated 01.11.2019, a copy of which is annexed as Annex.R-1 with the affidavit. The same is retained on record.

With the passing of the order, the grievance of the petitioner has been redressed as he can avail the period of parole for agricultural purposes as also for celebrating the marriage of his daughter. The date of the marriage has been verified by the police authorities. There is no dispute regarding that.

In view of this turn of events, the petition has been rendered infructuous. Disposed of as such.
