Versus

State of Punjab & others

--Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Sandeep Kumar, Advocate for the petitioners.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J (Oral)

Petitioners seek a Mandamus for directing the official respondents no.2 to 4 to act upon the decision contained in the communications dated 6.12.2012 and 7.4.2015 Annexures P-2 and P-3 respectively.

Perusal of the afore-noticed communications bring forth at best an assurance having been held out by the Chief Minister of the State to give jobs on the post of Supervisors under the Punjab Mandi Board to certain outstanding sports persons. Petitioners herein claim that they have a vested right to be appointed on the post of Supervisor under the Punjab Mandi Board on the strength of Annexures P-2 and P-3.

Suffice it to observe that the conditions of service of the post in question would be governed by statutory rules/regulations. The prayer in the instant petition does not find support from any statutory provision/rule. In any case no such provision has been reproduced in the petition and nor adverted to at the stage of addressing submissions.

Counsel confronted with a situation where this Court was not inclined to interfere and accept the prayer, seeks withdrawal of the instant petition.

Prayer is allowed.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
