..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI

Present: Mr. B.D.Sharma, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Vijay Rana, Advocate for caveator-respondents.

ARUN PALLI, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the parties submit, at the outset, that in all probabilities the dispute between the parties has since been settled, though the final instructions in this regard are still awaited. They pray for a short adjournment to place on record a copy of the compromise/settlement, if any, arrived at between the parties.

In the wake of the above, it is rather considered expedient to dispose of the appeal as having been rendered infructuous. However, if any dispute, cause of action or interest still survives the parties shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application for restoration of the appeal and its decision on merits.

Disposed of as having been rendered infructuous with the liberty prayed for. Copy of the settlement and/or compromise deed shall be placed on record within four weeks.
