2. Learned counsel for the appellant would contend that in terms of compromise effected between the parties, possession has already been handed over to him.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that despite efforts, he has not been able to contact his client and consequently does not oppose the appeal being allowed in terms of the compromise.

4. Consequently, the present appeal is allowed in terms of the compromise. The judgment and decree dated 24.03.2017 of the first Appellate Court is hereby set aside, restoring the judgment and decree dated 29.09.2015 as passed by the trial Court. Decree sheet be drawn accordingly.
