The petitioners are seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No.94 dated 25.08.2019, under Sections 380 and 454 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, registered at Police Station Dhariwal, District Gurdaspur.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the allegations against the petitioners are that the complainant had gone to attend a fair and on their return, they found that the main door of the house was open and household articles were lying scattered. On checking of the articles, it was found that ₹5,000/- were missing from the ladies' purse, which was lying in the house. He further contends that the petitioners are not involved in any other case.

This Court, by the order dated 24.10.2019, had directed the petitioners to appear before the investigating/arresting officer and join the investigation and in the event of their arrest, they were to be released on ad interim bail subject to the satisfaction of the investigating/arresting officer.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioners and the petitioners having joined investigation, the order dated 24.10.2019 granting ad interim bail to the petitioners is made absolute.

However, the petitioner shall abide by the conditions stipulated under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C. They shall also join investigation as and when called upon to do so.
