CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT RAWAL

Present: Mr. G.S. Jagpal, Advocate for the appellants.

AMIT RAWAL, J. (ORAL)

The appellants-plaintiffs, after having failed in defending the proceedings under Section 7 of the Punjab Village Common Lands Regulation Act, 1961 (in short 'the 1961 Act'), upto this Court, have chosen to file the suit for declaration challenging the orders of the Revenue Court, declaring the Gram Panchayat to be owner.

Concededly, as per the provisions of Section 11 of the 1961 Act, the Civil Court would not have the jurisdiction. In other words, the plaintiffs, had the alternative remedy under the 1961 Act and not the Civil Suit. This is what the pith and substance of the judgments and decrees of both the Courts below. I do not find any illegality and perversity in the judgments and decrees, under challenge, much less, no substantial question of law arises for determination. No ground is made out for interference. Resultantly, the present second appeal is dismissed.
