Nav Ketan

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN KUMAR TYAGI

Present : Mr. Mandeep Singh Sachdev, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sandeep Singh Deol, D.A.G. Punjab
for the respondent-State.

ARUN KUMAR TYAGI, J (ORAL)

Prayer in the present 1st petition filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.120 dated 10.06.2019 registered under Sections 452, 323, 379-B read with Section 34 of the IPC at Police Station Rama Mandi, Jalandhar, District Jalandhar.

The petitioner Nav Ketan has been charge-sheeted by SHO, Police Station Rama Mandi, Jalandhar, District Jalandhar for alleged commission of offences punishable under Sections 452, 323, 379-B read with Section 34 of the IPC on the allegations that the petitioner alongwith his co-accused armed with deadly weapons had trespassed into the office of the E-Conroe Courier Company, abused and inflicted blow with iron rod on left hand of complainant Amandeep, Dealing Assistant in the presence of supervisor Sukhpreet Singh and snatched amount of Rs. 2,93,000/- and their mobile phones.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated. The petitioner was not named in the FIR and was implicated and arrested on the basis of confessional statement of co-accused Paramjit Singh alias Prince Baba. He was not involved in the alleged occurrence. The petitioner is in custody since 05.08.2019. The petitioner is not involved in any other case. The trial is likely to take long time. Therefore, the petitioner may be ordered to be released on regular bail.

On the other hand, learned State Counsel has submitted that the offence attributed to the petitioner is of serious nature and the petitioner does not deserve the concession of regular bail. However, learned State Counsel has conceded that the petitioner is not involved in any other case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case particularly that involvement of the petitioner in the alleged occurrence is disputed, he is not involved in any other case and the trial is likely to take long time and his presence during trial can be secured otherwise also than only by his detention in custody which will not serve any purpose but without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, I am of the considered view that the petitioner deserves the concession of regular bail. Therefore, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on furnishing of bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Trial Court/Duty Magistrate. However, in case of commission of any offence of similar nature by the petitioner in future, his bail in the present case shall also be liable to be cancelled on filing of application in this regard.
