

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

TA-509-2018 (O&M)
Date of decision: 15.07.2019

Pooja

...Applicant

Versus

Shiv Kumar

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Umesh Sharma, Advocate for the respondent.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

Applicant Pooja, aged about 25 years, estranged wife of respondent Shiv Kumar, presently residing with her parents at Jalandhar, on account of matrimonial discord between the parties, by way of filing the present application, seeks transfer of divorce petition, filed by her husband, the respondent against her having title 'Shiv Kumar Vs. Pooja' pending in the Court of Addl. District Judge-10, Amritsar to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Jalandhar.

According to the applicant, the marriage solemnized between the parties in the year 2012 did not work, though the couple was blessed with a male child, namely Master Goransh. Circumstances were so created by the respondent that the applicant had to leave the matrimonial home and start residing with her parents at Jalandhar. The minor son of the parties is also in her custody; that the applicant does not have any source of income. It is difficult for the applicant to travel from her parental place to Amritsar to attend the dates of hearing in the Court there, covering a distance of about 90 kms on one side. Therefore, the present application be accepted.

Notice of the application was given to the respondent who put in appearance through counsel and is opposing the application vehemently, praying for its dismissal.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties besides going through the record.

The Apex Court in various judgments has observed that in matrimonial disputes between the spouses convenience of wife should be looked into. In that regard a reference can be made to authority Sumita Singh Versus Kumar Sanjay and another, 2002 AIR(SC) 396 by a Division Bench of Hon'ble Supreme Court.

In Bhartiben Ravibhai Ray Versus Ravibhai Govindbhai Ray, 2017(3) RCR(Civil) 369, the Apex Court had allowed application for transfer of the divorce petition to a place where the wife was residing considering various factors including the distance between the place where the wife was residing and the place of sitting of the Court where divorce petition had been instituted and the fact that the wife had filed two cases against her husband in the Court at the place of her residence wherein the respondent had already put in appearance.

In Apurva Versus Navtej Singh, 2017(2) Law Herald 966 by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, it was observed that wherever the Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer in matrimonial disputes, the Courts have to take into consideration various factors like economic soundness of either of the parties, the social strata of the spouses to which they belong and behavioural pattern, standard of life antecedents of marriage. Generally it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at by the Courts while deciding the transfer application.

Keeping in view the contentions in the application and submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant, in which I find merit, in absence of any strong circumstance to the contrary, it would be proper and appropriate, if the application is accepted. The same is accordingly allowed. The petition in question is ordered to be withdrawn from the Court of Addl. District Judge-10, Amritsar and transferred to Family Court at Jalandhar for disposal in accordance with law.

The parties through their counsel are directed to appear in the transferee Court on 16.08.2019. Copies of orders be sent to both the Courts for information and necessary compliance.
