The short point involved in this revision petition is whether the impugned order calling upon the petitioner to pay the Court fee, as subject matter of the suit reveals that the plaintiff is challenged the sale deed dated 25.06.2014 by paying court fee of Rs. 23,900/- can again be called to pay the court fee and the plaint is liable to be dismissed for want of the same. The answer is No. The factum of paying the Court fee is not denied by the respondent.

In such circumstances, impugned orders dated 07.09.2017 and 07.10.2017 (Annexures P/6 and P/7) are hereby set aside. Revision petition stands allowed.
