Application is allowed. Joint affidavit filed on behalf of the petitioners is taken on record.

CRM-36467-2019

Application is allowed. Affidavit filed on behalf of respondent No.2-complainant is taken on record.

Main case

Petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short ('Cr.P.C.)) invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.53 dated 04.06.2019 registered under Sections 458, 324, 323, 341, 148 and 149 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station, City 2, Malerkotla, District Sangrur and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion was issued.

In compliance of the order dated 08.11.2019 passed by this Court, parties are present in the Court. They are identified by their respective counsel. As per joint affidavits of the petitioners as well as private respondents No.3 to 6 as also the affidavit of the complainant, the compromise arrived at between them is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence.

Learned counsels appearing on behalf of both the parties admit that parties have settled their disputes.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of the Court settlement by way of compromise. The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

For the aforesaid view, this Court finds support from Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, upheld by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned and to secure the ends of justice, FIR No.53 dated 04.06.2019 registered under Sections 458, 324, 323, 341, 148 and 149 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station, City 2, Malerkotla, District Sangrur and the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are ordered to be quashed, however, qua the petitioners only.

Resultantly, with the above-said observations made, the instant petition stands allowed.
