The petitioner is seeking anticipatory bail in Complaint No. Coma/6784/2014 dated 26.09.2014, registration dated 29.09.2014, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, pending before the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Ludhiana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner had earlier been granted bail by the trial Court, but as she was unwell she could not appear before the trial Court. Consequently, her bail was cancelled. She also contends that the petitioner has already paid a sum of ₹1,25,000/- to the complainant in terms of compromise with the complainant. She undertakes that the petitioner shall henceforth appear before the Court on each and every date of hearing and would not absent herself except with the prior permission of the Court.

This Court, by the order dated 16.11.2019, had directed petitioner to appear before the trial Court and in the event of his doing so, she was ordered to be released on interim bail on her furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that petitioner has appeared before the trial Court on 09.12.2019 has been released on interim bail in terms of the order dated 16.11.2019.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for petitioner, the order dated 16.11.2019 granting interim bail to petitioner is made absolute.
