On being pointed out that there is no challenge to the order dated 05.03.2015 by which actually the benefits of the technical pay was withdrawn from the petitioner, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the said order has never been supplied to the petitioner, though, the said order has been made the basis of rejecting the claim of the petitioner in the impugned order.

Till the order by which the benefit of technical pay was withdrawn is not challenged, no relief can be extended to the petitioner.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner prays that petitioner will approach the respondents for getting the copy of the order dated 05.03.2015, which has never been supplied to the petitioner and petitioner will file a fresh writ petitioner challenging the same and the petitioner be permitted to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to file a fresh one on the same cause of action.

Learned counsel for the petitioner prays that a direction be issued to the respondents to supply the copy of the order dated 05.03.2015 at the earliest.

As of now, there is no application, which the petitioner has moved for seeking the copy of the order dated 05.03.2015. This Court is sure that in case any application is moved by the petitioner in that regard, the respondents will supply the copy of the order dated 05.03.2015 without any delay.

Dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty, as prayed for.
