This petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 3 of the Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 2007 for direction to the respondents to release the petitioner on parole for 25 days for the purpose of attending and making arrangements for the wedding of his daughter, which is fixed for 12.12.2019.

Reply has been filed by the State in the Court today. The same is taken on record. As per the reply, the petitioner is undergoing life imprisonment in case FIR No.373 dated 28.11.2014 registered under Sections 120B, 364, 302, 201 read with Section 34 IPC and 25 & 27 of the Arms Act at Police Station City Gohana.

Learned counsel for the State submits that as per the report dated 5.12.2019 furnished by the SHO, Police Station Sadar, the SHO has recorded that the peace is likely to be breached in case the petitioner is released on parole. However, the factum of marriage of the daughter of the petitioner is acknowledged. He further states that the case of the petitioner has been declined on the ground that the petitioner has already availed parole twice in the year 2019.

Heard.

This is to be noticed that the petitioner has not misused the concession of parole earlier granted to him. The factum of marriage is duly acknowledged. The daughter of the petitioner is getting married and the petitioner has obligations as a father to make arrangements and to perform the ceremonies essential for the marriage.

In the circumstances, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is granted parole for 25 days subject to furnishing surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Duty Magistrate. The petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities on the date and time to be noticed by the releasing Court/ Duty Magistrate.

Copy of the order be given to the learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Bench Secretary.
