AT CHANDIGARH

CRR(F)-1034-2019 (O&M)
Date of Decision:-7.12.2019

BALJINDER SINGH

... Petitioner

Versus

RAJWANT KAUR AND ANOTHER

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Rahul Vats, Advocate for the petitioner.

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

There is delay of 194 days in filing this revision petition.

The reasons assigned in the application for condonation of delay is that it was on account of ill-health of the petitioner that the petition could not be filed in time.

Learned counsel in this regard has referred to a discharge and follow up card issued by PGI as per which the petitioner had been admitted on 7.9.2015 and had been discharged on 14.9.2015 from the Department of Neurology. The said card further shows that the petitioner has been taking follow up treatment thereafter. However there is nothing to suggest that the petitioner could not move about or not even in a position to pursue to his case since it was only for few days that he was admitted in PGI. This Court finds that the delay of 194 days is not sufficiently explained. The application, as such, is sans merit and is hereby dismissed and consequently the revision petition is also dismissed being time barred.
