RAVI SHANKER JHA, C.J. (ORAL)

After arguing at length and on not finding favour with this Court, as we do not find any reason to interfere with the order of the learned Single Judge, the learned counsel for the appellant prays for and is permitted to withdraw the appeal.

He submits that he wishes to file a review.

We have no comments to make on that and the appellant would be at liberty to take up all the remedies available to him.
