v.

State of Haryana

...Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Inderjit Singh

.....

Present: Mr. J.P. Jangu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Inderjit Singh, J.

The petitioner has filed this petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.211 dated 8.12.2018 registered for the offences under Sections 272, 273, 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC and Section 61 of the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 at Police Station Rajaund, District Kaithal.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have gone through the record.

A perusal of the FIR shows that it has been registered on the basis of a secret information that Sattu Jatt Sikh was owning a vacant house and fields near Village Mandwal, which were sold by him to some Delhi party about six/seven years ago and those persons now leased out the said house and fields for cultivation to some other persons. Parveen has taken liquor vend at Village Bastali, District Karnal. He along with his other companions, used to make and sell spurious liquor in the said vacant house in the fields of Sattu. It is in the FIR that they are also using some poisonous chemical to prepare said spurious liquor. Then a raid was conducted and empty cardboard boxes of Marka Royal Stag, Blenders Pride, McDowell etc., empty bottles of various companies, caps sticker label, holograms of liquor bottles were also recovered. The present petitioner, as per the FIR, is the main accused. He is required for custodial interrogation.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case and the fact that the petitioner is required for custodial interrogation, I do not find it a fit case where the petitioner is entitled for the grant of anticipatory bail.

Therefore, finding no merit in this petition, the same is dismissed.
