JITENDRA CHAUHAN.J.(ORAL)

Through the instant civil writ petition, a direction has been sought to register FIR against respondent No.6 under Sections 20(e), (f) and 20 (3) of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act.

As per the reply filed on behalf of respondent Nos. 1, 2 and 5, the matter was inquired and as per the assessment report, Rs.29,025/- have been still retained by respondent No.6. The expenses have been incurred more than the income.

Learned counsel for respondent No.6 states that he has instructions that without prejudice to her rights, respondent No.6 will pay the amount within four weeks from today.

In this view of the matter, no further action is required.

Disposed of accordingly.
