MANOJ BAJAJ, J. (Oral)

Petitioner-Noor Hassan has filed this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus for release of the alleged detenu mentioned in para 4 of the petition, who are alleged to be in the illegal custody of private respondents.

During the course of hearing, it is not disputed by learned counsel for the petitioner that the alleged detenu entered into a contract with respondent Nos.5 to 7 for manufacturing bricks at the brick kiln. He is unable to substantiate his argument that the alleged detenu are in illegal custody of respondent Nos.5 to 7 particularly when the petitioner was also engaged by respondent Nos.5 to 7 for the said purpose. However, the petitioner is able to move freely, who has filed this petition claiming himself to be near relative/friend of the alleged detenu.

Further a perusal of the petition reveals that no complaint whatsoever was given by the petitioner before the Police or the District Magistrate and the pleadings in the petition do not inspire confidence.

Resultantly, this Court is not inclined to exercise the extraordinary writ jurisdiction under Article 226 Constitution of India.

Dismissed.
