RAJBIR SEHRAWAT, J. (Oral)

Although the present criminal writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for protection of life and liberty, however, the essence of the petition is for issuance of directions to respondent No.2 to take action on the representation filed by the petitioner against the respondent No.3.

Although, the grievance of the petitioner, in substance, appears to be some dispute regarding the property, however, the petitioner has also raised concern about her life and liberty. Accordingly, the present petition is disposed of with direction to respondent No.2 to assess the threat perception to the petitioner and to ensure that no harm is caused to the life and liberty of the petitioner.

However, it is further clarified that the present order shall not be made a basis for any other action against the official respondents, which legally may not be called for against them.

The petition stands disposed off with the above directions.
