CRL.M.A. 36038/2019

1. Exemption is allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

BAIL APPLN. 2325/2019

3. The petitioner has filed the present petition, inter alia, seeking a transit anticipatory bail for a period of four weeks in relation to FIR No. 0121/2018, under Sections 420/465/468/471/120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, read with Section 13 of the Travel Professional Regulations Act, 2014.
4. Ms Dhalla, learned APP appearing for the State, states that it has been verified that the petitioner is a permanent resident of Delhi. It is also verified that the petitioner is of advanced age.
5. It is seen that the said FIR has been registered with Police Division

No.-I, Jalandhar. In this context, the petitioner seeks transit anticipatory bail for a period of four weeks to join the investigation at Jalandhar.

6. In view of the above, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is granted a short-term anticipatory bail. It is directed that the petitioner shall not be arrested for a period of four weeks from today, in order to enable the petitioner to join the investigation at Jalandhar.

7. It is clarified that this order would not preclude the petitioner from seeking appropriate remedies from a Court of competent jurisdiction.

8. Order dasti under signatures of the Court Master.
