1. The parties were summoned to enable us to facilitate a settlement between them, if possible. However, having interacted with them and their respective counsel, as of now, there does not appear a likelihood of an amicable resolution.
2. Learned counsel for the appellant states that he does not wish to press the present appeal but reserves the right of the appellant to seek legal recourse against the respondent at an appropriate stage.
3. Leave as prayed for is granted. The appeal is dismissed as not pressed.
